Union Budget 2024 Live: "Lower battery prices"

"We are hopeful that GOI will propagate the faster adoption of eLCVs, by not just continuing to subsidize the end consumer, but also by easing the process of registration for the vehicles. I am hopeful that the Government will also, in conjunction with the industry, set a framework whereby Battery prices can be lowered. This will further lower the value of the product, easing the burden on the already marginalized consumer," says Kumar Shalya Gupta, Chief Executive Officer, PHF Leasing Limited
